TLSC provides free legal assistance to low-income Texas veterans, their spouses, and surviving spouses of deceased veterans. We can help with most civil legal matters, as well as veteran-specific issues like military discharge upgrades and accessing VA benefits.

OVERCOMING VETERAN-SPECIFIC CHALLENGES

Settling into civilian life.

We help newly discharged service members access higher education, create new family arrangements, and ensure they are given a fair shot at employment.

Receiving the benefits owed to you.

We help navigate procedural complexities and remove barriers that prevent veterans from receiving the benefits they have earned.

Securing financial and housing stability.

We protect vets and their families from foreclosures, predatory lending, bankruptcy, and other issues affecting financial security.

Addressing service-related traumas.

We frequently provide additional legal services to those in all stages of treatment, rehabilitation, and recovery. Our attorneys understand that service-related trauma can impact many aspects of civilian life.
